ing of teachers of Fort Worth was held at school building number 2 yesterday and was attended by about the usual week partial arrangements made for the enter- day crowd of people, among whom was a fair sprinkling of ladies. The Gaiveston club was the opponent of the Fort Worths, and the former wen with a score of 6 to 1. The game was a fair one as regards the work of the mer, but it is conrect that several wrong decisions were made by the umpire. Many judgments were rendered, somemes favoring one side, cometimes delding, which were such covious mis takes that the players became dis-couraged, particularly the Fort Worths who were deprived of a good coance of winsing the game in the third lining by a ruling on a foul hit past third base, there being two men on bases whom a stagle would have brough in, but woo were left on the bases after the decision had been rendered.
